

A photograph of an indoor swimming pool with blue water and lane lines. The background shows poolside equipment and a tiled wall. Overlaid on the image is Japanese text in a playful, bubbly font. The text is arranged in two main sections. The top section says 'ジャパンでお友達に' in a light blue font, followed by a large yellow circle containing the character '差' (difference), and then 'をつけよう!' in a large, bold, blue-outlined font. The bottom section consists of three lines of text: '体力で' (Physical strength), '差がつく' (Difference is gained), '集中力で' (Concentration), '差がつく' (Difference is gained), and '運動神経で' (Motor skills), '差がつく' (Difference is gained). Each '差がつく' phrase is enclosed in a colored circle (yellow, orange, and green respectively) that matches the color of the text it follows.
